Gigantesco calamaro ad 8 tentacoli fa colazione con Banjo

Meno è più
Gli scienziati affermano che un uso illimitato del banjo, a causa delle vibrazioni, può provocare sbilanciamenti e possono accadere effetti strani come versare il the da un monociclo altissimo o addirittura peggio.

Gli ultimi due componenti delle banjo orchestra sopravvissuti al disastro hanno detto: "proveremo a portare avanti la tradizione dei nostri cari compagni perduti e ci chiameremo

Inghiottiti nel mare.

Una mostruosa e feroce piovra ha divorato 98 componenti di una orchestra formata da ben 100 suonatori di banjo.

La band si esibiva sul ponte di un transatlantico da crociera quando è accaduta la tragedia. Solo due musicisti sono riusciti miracolosamente a sopravvivere ai mostruosi tentacoli assassini.

La piovra è stata vista rigettare solo un monociclo di 2,5 mt e alcuni attrezzi di giocoleria mentre divorava i poveri musicisti.

Gli esperti hanno commentato "potrebbe aver addirittura già mangiato degli artisti di strada in tempi precedenti"

Solo 2 scampati al verace calamaro

E' il caso di dire che la fortuna era dalla parte del duo scampato al disastro. Professionisti del lazo, grazie ad una precedente esperienza come cowboy, il disperato duo e' fortunatamente riuscito a legarsi ad una ciminiera sul ponte della nave e così la piovra ha dovuto lasciare la tavola senza consumare il dolce!
